

Hello,

I am reaching out to let you know about the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and college student eligibility.

SNAP is a food assistance program provides monthly benefits to help you pay for food. SNAP is also sometimes referred to as food stamps, EBT and in Oregon it is also called the Oregon Trail card. SNAP helps many students to complete their studies and not let financial stress get in the way of their goals.

College student eligibility guidelines in Oregon have recently changed. More students in Oregon are eligible for SNAP. Please see this website for more details on college student SNAP eligibility: <https://oregonhunger.org/snap-for-students/>

If you think you might be eligible, you can apply for SNAP through the online application here: <https://apps.state.or.us/onlineApplication/>

Here at [school name/campus], please contact [campus specific information] to learn more about SNAP, if you might be eligible and how to apply.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with questions.

Sincerely,
