

Mornings can be hard, but school breakfast is easy!

Breakfast is an important part of school day—studies show students who eat breakfast at school score higher on math and reading tests, have better attendance, and are more likely to graduate.

Our school wants to work together as a community to make sure all kids have the nutrition they need to grow and thrive.

Talk to your child about the importance of eating breakfast at school or find out ways you can get involved:

